

Hello, how are you? Good day

This is my comment about the course that you gave in Oaxaca. My name is David Alberto Taylor Peña, I am not a pastor nor a preacher, but God is opening doors and before too long will be, Lord willing. He has already given me the opportunity and now I just need to write my sermon. Also I am studying in seminary in the same church where you gave us the course.

Now back to the course, at the beginning I did not know what to expect. The first day you gave us an introduction but no details, then I was hooked.

But after the second day when you shared us the Christological Hermeneutic, the unfolding mystery, everything made sense and my heart rejoiced, in that moment I felt that God had heard my prayers. I almost started crying for joy, but I refrained; Here in Oaxaca we need more servants of God that know how to exposit in this way, I remember that my conversion had to do with this kind of preaching approximately 5 years ago.

This course helped me a lot to see Christ in all the Bible and not just in a few passages, and it also helped me confirm the direction of my preaching. It helped be knock down those mental barriers of thinking systematically and not Biblically and it encouraged me not to faint when I make a sermon even though it takes a long time.

I am very enthusiastic to be able to enter and complete this course. I am willing to do my homework and get the material I need. I thank you all very much for this preparatory course. May you know that your work has not been in vain and that this has and will give much fruit.

May God continue blessing you all.

David Alberto Taylor Peña, Oaxaca, México.
